

Tuesday 5th May 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

A very exciting opportunity has arisen! I am looking for up to 30 children to sing at my 'Saturday Bandstand' event on Saturday 23rd May at 1pm at Southsea Bandstand.

The children will sing a selection of songs which they love to sing in school. They will be required to perform for around 15 mins.

EVERY child must be accompanied by an adult who will remain at the event throughout the duration of their performance and full contact details will be requested before the day.

This is a public event, which will be documented on social media and may be photographed and filmed by the public. Every parent/carer must therefore provide consent for this to happen.

Following the children's performance, we have 'Reflection' (an HSDC College band), Southern Ska Collective Choir (directed by myself) and headlining we have The Ford Mondeos - one of my own bands - so it will be a great family day out!

Creative Promotions is run by myself, and I will be in attendance for the whole event, which is supporting 'Stop Domestic Abuse' and 'The Arts & Minds' Campaign. The children of Solent Junior School have worked so hard on developing their singing this year, I would love to give some of them this opportunity to perform in such an iconic place.

If you would like your child to be considered for the performance, please ask them to collect a form from me or collect one from the school office no later than Wednesday 6th May. All forms will need to be completed and returned to me by Friday 8th May. All selected children will then be sent final details about the day.

Thank you for your continued support and I hope to see some of you on the day.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs Bannister-Palmer.
